

THE LORDS OF ALTAMONT

Hospitality Rider

INTRODUCTION

This rider is hereby agreed to be attached to, and made an integral part of the original contract entered between Purchaser and on behalf of The Lords of Altamont.

The Purchaser acknowledges that he or she is the legitimate representative for venue as stipulated in the attached contract for this engagement for a performance by the musical act The Lords of Altamont on the date as stipulated in attached contract by both principal parties of this contract. Any items and/or stipulations made by this rider both amend and supersede any similar or like ones presented in the original engagement contract attached to this rider.

Purchaser assumes both willingly and knowingly, all responsibility for obtaining any and all permission needed from the venue and/or its operator(s) in order that all the terms of the original engagement contract and this attached rider can be met.

GENERAL

The correct spelling of the artists' band name is The Lords of Altamont, and it should appear as such in all advertising.

HOSPITALITY

-Total number of people: 6 (4 musicians + 2 crew).

VERY IMPORTANT NOTE: one band member is diabetic. Please make sure the hospitality rider is provided as specified to avoid potential Diabetic Coma.

-Dedicated green room/backstage area.

-Reserved parking place for a van.

FOOD

-Fresh vegetables (a.o. green salad, tomatoes)

-Various fruits

-Cheeses

-Bread

-Nuts (e.g. walnuts, almonds, peanuts)

-Few candies and chocolate bars

DRINKS

-Case (24) of bottles of non-carbonated water.

-5 small bottles of orange juice or cranberry juice.

-2 cases (24 bottles) of cold beer or equivalent amount in drink tickets.

-One (1) bottle of good quality red wine.

MEALS

Cash-buyout of no less than 20USD per person.

OTHER

4 clean towels to be made available at the venue.